

Where in a plant cell do the light-independent reactions of photosynthesis occur?

- A nucleus
- B central vacuole
- C mitochondria
- D chloroplasts
- E endoplasmic reticulum
- F Golgi body

Both the light-dependent and light-independent reactions are carried out in the chloroplasts of plant cells.

Answer D.

Starr C'06'07 2002-10-23