

Albinism is an autosomal recessive disorder that affects all races. Which of the following statements about the parents of an albino male is true?

- A Both parents carry the recessive allele for albinism.
- B Neither parent carries the recessive allele for albinism.
- C Both parents are albinos.
- D Only the mother must carry the recessive allele.

This man must have received one recessive allele from each parent.

Answer A.

Starr C'11'19 2002-10-23