

Sieve-tube members and companion cells are

- A dead at maturity.
- B components of phloem.
- C found only in woody plants.
- D derived from protoderm.

These components of phloem are found in all vascular plants and are alive at maturity.

Answer B.

Starr C 25 15 2002-10-23