

Which choice below best fits in the blank? The opening and closing of stomata is controlled in part by the ___ ion concentration in the guard cells.

A hydroxide

B potassium

C sodium

D chloride

The movement of potassium ions into guard cells increases the turgor pressure in these cells and opens the stomata.

Answer B.

Starr C'26'08 2002-10-23