

What do biologists call a group of individuals of the same kind occupying a given area at the same time?

- A the biosphere
 - B a population
 - C an ecosystem
 - D a community
-

Examples of populations include all penguins in a breeding colony, all the sunfish in a pond, all the white oak trees in a forest, or all the people in a country.

Answer B.