

Which part of a water molecule carries a slight negative charge?

- A the hydrogen atoms
- B the oxygen atom

Electrons are more strongly attracted to the oxygen atom than to the hydrogen atoms. This gives the oxygen end of the molecules a slight negative charge.

Answer B.