

During what stage of mitosis do the chromosomes begin to condense?

- A telophase
 - B prophase
 - C anaphase
 - D metaphase
-

During prophase the chromosomes begin to condense and the nuclear envelope breaks up.

Answer B.