

Which choice below best fits in the blank? Oncogenes are altered forms of genes called ___ which are found even in normal cells.

- A promoters,
- B enhancers,
- C proto-oncogenes,
- D carcinogens,

---

Oncogenes are altered forms of normal genes, called proto-oncogenes, which are required for normal cell functioning.

Answer C.