

How do the roots of this tree obtain the organic compounds they need to carry out aerobic respiration?

- A translocation through the phloem
 - B cohesion-tension transport through the xylem
 - C absorption from the soil
 - D diffusion through the stomata
-

Organic compounds are moved from the leaves to the roots through the phloem.

Answer A.