

Which choice below best fits in the blank? In the human spinal cord, the ___ consists of dendrites, cell bodies of neurons, and neuroglial cells.

- A white matter
- B gray matter

The sheathed axons of these neurons make the spinal cords white matter appear white.

Answer B.