If terms have the same _____ with the same exponents, they are called _____terms.

A) roots $\cdots$ identity

B) variables $\cdots$ like

C) variables $\cdots$ unlike

D) solutions $\cdots$ like

If terms have the same variables with the same exponents, they are called like terms.

Answer(B)