

When the graphs of two equations in a system are different lines, the equations are called _____ equations.

A) dependent

B) independent

C) related

D) linear

When the graphs of two equations in a system are different lines, the equations are called independent equations.

Answer B.

gfbj'03'03'07 2006-11-20