The first step in any factoring problem is to factor out all common _____, if possible.

A)   solutions

B)   variables

C)   equations

D)   factors

The first step in any factoring problem is to factor out all common factors, if possible.

Answer C.