

When the values $f(x)$ increase as the values of x increase over an interval, we say that the function is an _____ function over that interval.

A) decreasing

B) increasing

C) constant

D) super

When the values $f(x)$ increase as the values of x increase over an interval, we say that the function is an increasing function over that interval.

Answer B

gfbj12'04'04 2006-11-29