

The function that gives the largest integer that is less than or equal to a number x is called the _____ function.

A) least integer

B) greatest integer

C) constant integer

D) increasing

The function that gives the largest integer that is less than or equal to a number x is called the greatest integer function.

Answer B

gfbj12'04'08 2006-11-29