

When the equations of a system have different graphs, the equations are called _____ equations.

A) consistent

B) inconsistent

C) dependent

D) independent

When the equations of a system have different graphs, the equations are called independent equations.

Answer D.

gfbj'13'01'11 2006-11-24