

The sequence 3, 9, 15, 21, \dots is an example of a(n) _____ sequence with a common _____ of 6.

- A) arithmetic \dots difference
- B) Fibonacci \dots ratio
- C) integer \dots ratio
- D) polynomial \dots difference

The sequence 3, 9, 15, 21, \dots is an example of a(n) arithmetic sequence with a common difference of 6.

Answer A.

gfbj14'03'07 2006-11-30