

When constructing a _____ of values, the values of x are the _____ values and the values of y are the _____ values.

- A) set...input...dependent
 - B) table...output...input
 - C) set...independent...output
 - D) table...input...output
-

When constructing a table of values, the values of x are the input values and the values of y are the output values.

Answer D.