

In a function, the set of all output values is called the _____.

- A) domain
 - B) range
 - C) variable
 - D) equation
-

In a function, the set of all output values is called the range.

Answer B