

The first step in any factoring problem is to factor out all common _____, if possible.

- A) solutions
 - B) variables
 - C) equations
 - D) factors
-

The first step in any factoring problem is to factor out all common factors, if possible.

Answer C.