

In a function, the set of all inputs is called the _____ of the function.

- A) domain
- B) range
- C) variables
- D) equations

In a function, the set of all inputs is called the domain of the function.
Answer A