

In a function, the set of all outputs is called the _____ of the function.

- A) domain
 - B) range
 - C) variables
 - D) equations
-

In a function, the set of all outputs is called the range of the function.

Answer B