

The function that gives the largest integer that is less than or equal to a number x is called the _____ function.

- A) least integer
 - B) greatest integer
 - C) constant integer
 - D) increasing
-

The function that gives the largest integer that is less than or equal to a number x is called the greatest integer function.

Answer B