

When the equations of a system have different graphs, the equations are called _____ equations.

- A) consistent
 - B) inconsistent
 - C) dependent
 - D) independent
-

When the equations of a system have different graphs, the equations are called independent equations.

Answer D.