

A coin under water appears to be

- A) nearer to the surface than it really is.
- B) farther from the surface than it really is.
- C) as deep as it really is.

From the sketch below one sees that the apparent depth  $\overline{CB}$  is less than the real depth  $\overline{CA}$ .

Answer A.